

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL HYDERABAD

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Conference Rules & Code of Conduct

Delhi Public School Hyderabad Model United Nations (DPSH MUN 2026) maintains the highest standards of academic excellence, diplomatic decorum, and institutional discipline. This handbook establishes the operational regulations and behavioural expectations for all participants throughout the conference. Institutional familiarity with these regulations is mandatory; non-compliance will result in disciplinary action, up to and including immediate expulsion from the conference premises.

1. Dress Code & Wardrobe Standards

To preserve the professional ambiance of a diplomatic summit, all delegates must adhere to a strict standard of formal, modest attire. These regulations apply uniformly across all genders without exception. Casual clothing—including denim, t-shirts, hoodies, and athletic wear—is prohibited for the duration of the event.

- Day 1 (Business formal) Trousers & Formal shirts
- Day 2 (Traditional)

Crop tops, sleeveless blouses, and revealing garments are strictly prohibited. Skirts and dresses of any style or length are not permitted. Participants failing to comply with the dress code will be restricted from entering committee sessions until appropriate modifications are made, and severe or persistent violations may result in dismissal from the conference.

2. Committee Operations & Campus Regulations

2.1 Session Protocol

- Digital Decorum: Using social media, streaming sites, or entertainment applications while committee sessions are ongoing is not allowed. NO Wi-Fi will be available; delegates are permitted to bring and use personal dongles, however mobile phones are strictly not allowed. Delegates must obtain explicit permission from their Executive Board prior to use of personal dongle.
- Food & Mobility: Eating is not allowed within the committee rooms during formal sessions. Any form of utilizing external food delivery is not allowed during the entirety of the conference. Delegates must stay in their own assigned committee room. Unauthorized access to or parts of the campus will lead to instant disqualification.
- Media Protocol: Recording audio or video is not allowed without the prior approval of the Secretariat/Executive Board and other delegates.

2.2 Identification & Credentials

The photo ID card issued by school is a must have for campus entry. Delegate ID Card & Kit will be issued to all delegates on Day 1 and should be kept visible always. In case of loss of any ID, the delegates shall not be allowed into the campus during the conference.

2.3 Institutional Property & Liability

Neither the Secretariat nor the Organising Committee shall be held liable for any loss, theft or damage of participants' property, including their gadgets. On the other hand, any acts of any damage to the property belonging to the school or theft will lead to strict action and total compensation.

2.4 Attendance & Certification

Participation and delegation award certificates are awarded on condition that the attendees have attended all sessions during the two-day conference. Kindly note that attendance on all days is mandatory for the issuance of your E-certificate. The school gates will close at exactly the same time scheduled. Delays expected have to be reported in writing to the secretariat prior to the day of the session. Latecomers who fail to inform the secretariat in advance will not be allowed entry into the conference hall.

3. Prohibited Items & Contraband

The possession, distribution, or consumption of the following items is strictly prohibited across the entire school campus, including committee rooms and hallways :

- Phones, Cameras, Digi cameras, Headphone, Earphones, Airpods, Smart watches

Any participant found during the bag check in possession of contraband will face immediate confiscation of the item, and instantaneous suspension from the conference. No prior warnings will be issued.

4. Behavioural Expectations

- Affection shown in public cannot be tolerated in this convention that is professional in nature and will be taken care immediately by the Secretariat . Personal conduct is expected to remain respectful always. Rude comments, abusive remarks, or insults at the participants, the Executive Board, or the Secretariat will not be entertained in any form. Violent behavior will lead to immediate expulsion.
- The Secretariat guarantees a secure, inclusive, and equitable environment for all participants. Sexual harassment, bullying, and discriminatory conduct—whether verbal, physical, or digit are strictly prohibited.

5. Academic Integrity & Plagiarism Policy

Any position paper, research dossier, and draft resolution that are submitted have to be an original piece of writing on behalf of the respective delegate. The usage of any kind of plagiarism, which is the theft of another delegate's intellectual property without giving credit to the person, and submitting the work done by an AI program is strictly forbidden. Any source used in the document has to be cited according to the guidelines of the particular committee's Executive Board.

Eyewitness testimonies and CCTV footage. Any individual found violating this policy will be summarily expelled and, where applicable, reported to the appropriate law enforcement authorities.

6. Disciplinary Authority & Appeals

However, the Secretariat holds the discretion to suspend or dismiss from the program any person whose behavior violates this Code of Conduct to a serious extent. Expulsion will automatically disqualify an individual for refunds of the registration fee that he or she paid. The decision made by the Secretariat and the School Management is final and nonappealable.

DPSH MUN Secretariat

FOR FURTHER INQUIRIES:

- +91 88862 20815 (USG of Policy)
- +91 91006 73024 (USG of Delegate Affairs)